What People have said...

"I want to share with you what I think should be one of the first speakers you consider when scheduling your calendar year as chapter President. His name is Lenny Laskowski, www.LJLSeminars.com. He spoke at our chapter meeting this past weekend and provided the most content rich program I have seen so far as an NSA member. Everyone in attendance walked away with information they could be immediately applied to the websites and marketing plans. In fact, my mentor had some great things to say about Lenny.

"I've been speaking professionally for over 16 years spending thousands of dollars in various websites that never worked as advertised from supposedly top flight designers.

For an investment of a regular chapter meeting, Lenny Laskowski provided specific & powerful tools and techniques that made immediate massive positive impact on my website. He also provided a remarkable format for a reliable internet marketing tool.

This is one of the NSA speakers every chapter should have on their "must come here" list.

Bil Karlson, Past President, NSA Tennessee

"As a National Speakers Association member for eight years, a member of three NSA chapters and a past president of the Tri-State Chapter I have gotten to see many fine presentations. I would say your two programs this past Saturday as it relates to the internet and web sites were two of the finest I have attended.

A million thanks for making your three hours with us so memorable. You provided substance and actionable suggestions that will help attendees grow their business whether they are consultants, speakers or trainers.

Juan Negroni, The Tally Consultancy

"I would like to thank you for the outstanding seminar you recently conducted on behalf of Verizon's National Sales Support Team. Your seminar, "Simply Speaking...Selling Yourself & Your Ideas" was exactly the type of hands-on, practical skills transfer that we were looking for! I also want to thank you, for your thorough preparation and the quality of the materials that you provided to our group. Much of the anecdotal feedback that we have received truly speaks very positively to your professionalism and method of delivery. As our group makes presentations for a living, you were able to speak to them in a language familiar to them and to provide them with tips and techniques with which they were previously unfamiliar. The participants left your seminar energized and with an increased level of confidence in their abilities to make professional presentations.

Jeff Patton, Senior Staff Consultant/Manager
National Sales Support Team
Verizon

"I would like to thank you for your recent efforts in upgrading the presentation skills of the R&D department here at Cabot Microelectronics. I thought the format of you presenting two 4-hr workshops in early summer, followed by critiquing our project reviews one- and two-months later respectively, was highly effective. It enabled the concepts to sink in and be out into practice immediately, and brought you back to reinforce good practices."

Cliff Spiro, Vice President, Research &
Development
Cabot Microelectronics

"I want to thank you for providing your two-day presentation skills seminar for our professional staff at the French Embassy in Washington, DC. The feedback we received from each of participants was that the seminar was one of the best seminars they ever attended. The program was very well organized and each participant learned much during the two days you spent with us. We certainly plan to use your services in the near future for another seminar.

Laurent Jacquet-Saillard, Head of Administrative Department
Ambassade De France Aux Etats-Unis

"Thanks for spending two days with us to present your "Simply Speaking...Selling Yourself & Your Ideas" seminar. The workshop was an excellent event - well organized, well-run, and highly informative. The extent to which you practice what you teach was evident throughout the two days, and served to reinforce all that we learned. Feedback from the attendees at the time was highly positive. Everyone who attended took away at least a few key tips, and I believe, came away with more than they expected"

Jordan M. Corn, Corporate IT Strategy,
Architecture & Planning
Rohm & Haas

"I have your book, "10 Days to More Confident Public Speaking." I am preparing to launch into a campaign of speaking before retirees like myself. Your book is an excellent guide for me and gives me the confidence to know I can do this with a bit of humor. Thank you for the lamp in the darkness. Much of fear comes from the unknown (how will I be received?).

B. Case, Proud Owner of
"10 Days to More Confident Public Speaking"

"Your presentation on "How to Effectively Present Yourself & Your Ideas" at our company was both informative and exceptionally interesting. In fact, your insightful real life stories turned out to be one of the highlights of the meeting! We thoroughly enjoyed the "sneak previews" you provided directly after each presentation, and the favorable comments following your presentation reflected the consensus. All of us extend our warm thank for an outstanding presentation"

Susan Giroux-Cohen, Manager of Human Resources
Zycos

"No Sweat Presentations - The Painless Way to Successful Speaking" not only brought our attention to our deficiencies in public speaking, but it raised our level of proficiency in just two comprehensive and enjoyable sessions."

Louis P. (Dan) Valente , Chariman and CEO
Palomar Medical Technologies, Inc

"My students found your lectures on strategic internet marketing highly informative and chock-full of practical information. Your presentations were energetic, well prepared, and highly relevant. Such experienced professionals as you help our students for a career in management by providing useful information from the real world. "

Dr. Eli Noam, Professor and Director
Columbia University Graduate School of Business

"Thank you for holding your Presentation Skills Seminars for three of our employee groups. The feedback we received from the employees who attended the sessions was very positive. While many people initially were reluctant to speak in front of a group, particularly when a video camera was recording their every word, most indicated that after a while the panic gave way to enthusiasm. Everyone who completed the seminars said they were enjoyable and very helpful. We greatly appreciate the time and effort you put into these seminars. They were obviously well thought out and presented in such a way as to promote confidence and reduce stage fright in the participants. "

Mechtilde Boeing, Vice President,
DG Bank
Deutsche Genossenschaftsbank AG
New York Branch

"Thank you for the energetic two-day seminar on Executive Presentation Skills. At our company's quarterly meeting, the evidence was observed by all of us! Each person who attended the seminar gave a better, more effective presentation based on the techniques you provided. Thank you again for providing a new approach to giving presentations."

M. Garret, Practice Director
Advanced Technologies & Services, LLC

"After investing 4 months, using the internet heavily each day, to get a sense of the opportunities open to my business, I had only a rough idea of what I really should have. Fortunately for me, I had the opportunity to watch you demonstrate what is actually effective in internet marketing. I recognized instantly that your seminar and expertise would save me hundreds of hours of on-line time. Thanks Lenny!"

Joseph F. Dunphy, MBA

"Your suggestions made a big difference in my presentations. Your coaching style raised my confidence level during the presentations and greatly improved the quality of my presentations"

K. Colgan, Sr. Engineer
Northeast Utilities Service Company

"Thanks for writing your book. It is extremely useful to use. Constructive ideas, not just theory. At your seminar you were the model of your presentation"

C. McCain
Alpha Delta Kappa Chapter

"Your 2 hour mini-workshop "Making Effective Presentations" was the highlight of our Council Planning Conference." Each member will benefit from your workshop well into the future of their careers"

R. Gary, Associate Scout Executive
Long Rivers Council, Boy Scouts Of America

"Your presentation on public speaking was very well received by the attendees. Your tips on preparing for a presentation will be used by all of us in the months (and probably years) to come"

J. Slifer, Program Chairperson
CT Chapter of the American Marketing
Association

"I especially appreciated your willingness to join our group early and spend some time getting to know our officers. It really made you part of the group and therefore, I feel, a more compelling speaker for our event"

L. Burks, Manager of Division Activities

"Your seminar was very professionally done. You were an excellent example of your seminars subject matter. Very professional"

S. Dumeer, Teacher
Newington High School

"You're good! You took a dull subject and made it live!"

A. Weiss, President
Summit Consulting Group, Inc.

"As Director of Marketing, I shared your materials with our entire marketing and sales staff. Not only did each individual benefit, but as a team we can't be beat!"

E. Talbot, Director of Marketing & Special
Products
HBAC Relocation

"What a great presentation you made to our employees. You were not only humorous, but entertaining and creative in your approach"

K. Scoville, Employee Assistance Officer
Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company

Seminars & Workshops

By
Lenny Laskowski

Leadership & Team Building Workshop -This is a three-day workshop to help you become a more dynamic leader, speaker and presenter. This workshop will assess your current leadership skills and teach you how to improve your presentations and improve your confidence.

You will also learn how to interact with other team members as well as get a better understanding of your leadership style. This fast paced course is designed for busy professionals who want to fine-tune their existing skills.

This three day program is limited to 6 to 12 participants.

How to Effectively Present Your Ideas -This is the perfect two-day workshop to help you become a more dynamic speaker and presenter. This workshop will teach you how to improve your presentations and improve your confidence. You will also learn how to properly structure your presentations, how to use visual aids, gestures, and speaking postures. You will also be provided with some physical and mental techniques you can use to reduce your speech anxiety. Lenny will share with you his unique method for preparing presentations along with techniques on handling questions. All presentations will be videotaped and the videotape is yours to keep!

Class size is limited to 6 to 10 participants.

Executive Presentation Skills -This course is specifically designed for Supervisors, Managers, Directors and above. This advanced course assumes prior experience with delivering presentations and is designed for those whose speaking and presenting play a critical role in the success of your business. This course will "fine tune" your speaking style to improve your spoken image. You will learn how to command your audience's attention and project a professional image which makes people take notice. Personalized videotape coaching will be provided for each participant.

Two or three day programs are available. Class size is limited to 6 to 10 participants.

How to Make Effective Team Presentations -This course is designed for anyone who makes team presentations. Two or more people will act as a team during this workshop. Team presentations involve specific techniques and are usually involved when the stakes are higher. Special preparation techniques and coordination efforts are critical to the success of the team presentation. Team participants (2 or more) come prepared with their own presentations and these are fine-tuned during this workshop. This advanced course assumes prior presentation skills and is designed to coach you on how to prepare and deliver a team presentation. All presentations will be videotaped.

This two-day program is limited to 6 to 12 participants.

Technical Presentations For Today's Engineer-This course is designed for anyone involved with technical presentations. The technical presentation usually involves the use of more visual aids, especially graphs, charts, and statistical data. This course is designed to teach you how to better display your ideas to those who may not be familiar with your area of expertise. Graphical display techniques along with methods to display and present technical information before and during the presentations will be discussed. Since many technical presentations involve teams, this course will also include some team presentation concepts.

This two-day program is limited to 6 to 10 participants.

Seminars & Workshops (Cont'd)

Effective Executive Briefing Skills - You may often be called on to brief your staff, management or even the press. Our ability to quickly organize information in a logical, concise, and professional manner may be called upon at a moments notice. To do this effectively you need tools such as presentation skills', organization skills', the ability to use visual aids', the ability to handle questions professionally, and quite often the ability to speak extemporaneously. This 3-day intensive seminar will provide participants with the tools and techniques to conduct effective briefings effectively.

Train-the-Trainer Workshop-This special workshop is designed specifically for trainers and educators who are looking to "hone" their speaking skills. Lenny will work with your staff and share the techniques he uses as a professional speaker to educate, motivate, inspire, and entertain his audiences. If you are looking for ideas on how to use various visual aids, ice-breakers, and group discussions this is the course for you and your staff. You will also learn how to make team presentations.

Two & Three Day Programs are available - no limit on the number of participants

Simply Speaking .. Selling Yourself and Your Ideas! -This is an intensive one-day workshop designed to provide you with new ways to present yourself and your ideas. Lenny will present a collection of topics and limited hands-on training from his most popular keynotes and workshops. This is the perfect workshop for large associations and companies that are looking for something special. This workshop can also be added as an option to your existing conference or event. Half-day workshops are also available and can be provided in conjunction with any of Lenny's dynamic keynotes. Call, write, or E-mail for more details.

There is no limit on the number of participants.

Upper Management Speech Coaching - Lenny can also provide private "one-on-one" speech coaching. This is provided in 4-hour sessions and are separated by at least one week. This allows for maximum growth and effectiveness. Personalized videotaping and coaching is provided along with a detailed assessment of speaking style. These 4-hour sessions allow Lenny to work with each management team member on a personalized basis and can be scheduled to accommodate any number of people. We can, of course, provide any customized program based on your individual needs.

A maximum of two people per day can be scheduled.

Consultation Services -Are you looking for someone to provide all your presentation skills training? Lenny is also available as an on-going speech coach or trainer for your staff and can provide a package of workshops and/or seminars over the course of the year. If you need several seminars, you can save money and time by contacting us for all your in-house programs. Discounts are available for multiple programs and can be customized to meet any of your needs. Call, write, or e-mail for details and ask for a FREE consultation!
